LIFE INSURANCE.
NAUTILUS (Mutual Life Insurance Company, No. 58, Wall Street). After mature deliberation, the Trustees have become convinced, and the experience of old established companies fully sustains the conclusion, that the advantages of Life Insurance on the Mutual plan, may be extended and diffused with greater convenience to a large class of contributors, and with equal security to all the assured, by requiring no greater amount of the premium to be paid in cash than the company will require to meet its engagements with promptitude and fidelity.
It has accordingly been determined that in all cases where the annual premium shall amount to $50, and 60 per cent thereof shall have been paid in cash, an approved note may be given for the remaining 40 per cent, payable twelve months after date, bearing six per cent interest to be paid annually, but the principal not to be called in unless the exigencies of the company require it, giving sixty days notice, and then only by assessments pro rata, and that may be required to meet the engagements of the company.
It is confidently anticipated that a system, the operation of which is so fair and equitable, so well calculated to place the benefits and blessings of Life Insurance within the reach of all, and at the same time enable each contributor to share equally and fully not only in its beneficial security but also in its profits of accumulation, will meet, as it is believed to deserve, the favor and confidence of the public.
The particular advantages offered by this company, are:
1. A guarantee capital.
2. An exact participation in the profits.
3. No individual responsibility beyond the amount of premium.
4. Those who insure for a less period than life, participate equally in the annual profits of the company.
The Nautilus company confines its business exclusively to Insurance on Lives, and all insurance pertaining to Life.

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT,.....TUESDAY, JAN. 12, 1847.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1847.

The Senate was opened with prayer by Rev. Jos. A. WATERMAN, of the Methodist Church.

The SPEAKER laid before the Senate, the report of the Louisville Turnpike Road Company.

Petitions were presented by the following Senators, viz: Messrs. Bramlette and Crenshaw, which were appropriately referred.

Mr. HARDIN presented the annual report of the Trustees of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, which was ordered to be printed.

Mr. HARDIN, from the committee on Judiciary, reported a bill from the H. R., to incorporate the Sharpshooter and female Academy; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R., to incorporate the town of Lower Cloverport, in Breckinridge county; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R., to abolish the benefit of clergy in criminal cases in this commonwealth; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R., for the benefit of the estate of John D. Locke, a lunatic; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R., to incorporate the Old School Presbyterian Church in Newport; passed.

Also—a bill for the benefit of the infant heirs of William McGinrich, deceased; authorizing the sale of certain property, under decree of Washington circuit court; passed.

Also—a bill for the benefit of M. B. Cox; passed.

Also—a bill authorizing Henry S. Mitchell to lay off a town in Allen county, to be called Butlersville; passed.

Also—a bill divorcing Catharine W. Hutchinson from her husband Parker N. Hutchinson.

The committee on Religion a few days since reported a resolution against the petition, and the petition was referred to the committee on Judiciary, with the view of inquiring into the question, as to whether the earnings of the petitioner would be protected and secured to herself under the act of last session "to protect the rights of married women."

The majority of the committee being of opinion that this would not come within the provisions of the act, reported this bill.

Mr. PATTERSON advocated the passage of the bill, from the peculiar circumstances of the case, but expressed himself opposed to indiscriminate legislation on this subject.

Mr. HENDERSON viewed the marriage relation as founded upon a civil contract, with which the Legislature should not, and could not properly interfere. It was a matter solely belonging to the Judiciary, and there he desired it to remain. He concluded by calling for the yeas and nays. The bill was passed by a vote of 21 to 14.

Mr. HARDIN from same committee reported a resolution against the petition of John Lee's heirs, which was concurred in.

Also—a resolution against the petition of Charles Silvers; concurred in.

Also—a resolution against the petition of the heirs of Wm. Buckner, dec'd.; concurred in.

Mr. WALKER from committee of Propositions and Grievances, reported a bill to amend the charter of the Lexington and Winchester Turnpike company; passed.

By the provisions of the above act (which has passed both Houses,) the board of directors hereafter to be consist of a President and three Directors only.

Mr. BOYD from the committee on Religion, reported a bill to divorce Letitia Ann Casey and restore her maiden name.

The committee on Religion had previously reported a resolution against the petitioner, and it had been recommended, with instruction to report a bill. The merits of the bill were discussed by Messrs. Butler and Peyton; the former objecting to the consideration of any cases of this kind, which are by a rule of the Senate excluded, and left for adjudication to the courts of justice; and the latter, urging the passage of the bill, on the ground that the change of name provided for in the bill, and which constituted the main inducement in the application of the petitioner, could not be obtained in any other way, than by the action of the Legislature.

The bill as reported was passed.

Mr. RICE from Select committee, reported a bill making appropriations for the improvement of Big Sandy river; referred to committee on Internal Improvement.

Leave was granted to bring in the following bills, viz:

Mr. FOX—a bill for the benefit of John Jones and others.

Mr. JAMES—a bill for the benefit of the heirs of David Ramsay, dec'd. of Hickman county.

Mr. RICE—a bill for the benefit of the Mechanics of Louisa and Lawrence county.

Mr. PATTERSON—a bill for the benefit of the children of W. D. S. Taylor, dec'd.

Mr. SWOPE—a bill to repeal the act establishing the Licking Navigation company.

Also—a bill to provide for the completion of lock and dam No. 2 on Licking river.

Mr. WILLIAMS—a bill to incorporate the Paris Cemetery company; all of which bills were appropriately referred.

Mr. PEYTON—a bill to provide for a special term of the Franklin circuit court, and court of appeals, for the trial of the case of Benjamin Hardin, against the second Auditor, upon an application for a writ of habeas corpus; referred to a select committee, Messrs. Peyton, Todd and Wall.

Orders of the Day.

A joint resolution from H. R., appointing the 10th day of February, for the final adjournment of the Legislature; was passed by a vote of 30 to 1.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was opened by prayer by the Rev. Mr. NORTON.

The journal of Saturday was read.

Petitions were presented by Messrs. Crawford, Crockett, Owens, Meriwether, Bowman, Moore, McArthur, Covington, Hobbs, Wright and White; which were appropriately referred.

Reports of Standing Committees.

The chairman of the Committee on Religion reported against the petition of Lucy Day.

Also; against the petition of Abraham and Huldah Netherton.

Mr. HOBBS stated the circumstances of the petitioners, and in view of their poverty, and the irreconcilable breach in the family, he hoped the House would listen to the petition and grant a divorce.

Mr. YOUNG hoped the House would not sanction the principle of granting divorces without any other evidence than the joint petition of the parties. There was no other evidence before the committee. The report of the committee was adopted; and the divorce denied.

Of Ways and Means; a resolution instructing the committee of Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency, and report a bill to dispense with certain officers in this commonwealth; adopted.

Of Internal Improvement; a bill allowing flat boats, and other boats, loaded with produce of Carroll county, to pass over dam at lock and dam number one, on Kentucky river free of toll, in high water; with an amendment.

The bill was advocated by Messrs. Stevenson, Hobbs, Tandy and Marshall, and opposed by Messrs. Reed, Hanson and Crockett.

Mr. GRAVES moved to re-commit the bill with instructions to report a bill authorizing flat boats to pass without toll over all the rivers in this commonwealth, under certain circumstances.

Mr. STEVENSON remarked that he thought it a bad principle when we had a board of Internal Improvement, to interfere with them, or to modify their decisions. But the committee thought this case an exception which would authorize an interference, and he would explain the reasons why this case stands out from all others.

The gentleman from Franklin, (Mr. Reed) asks why not extend the same privilege to Henry county? I, said Mr. S. asked the same question in committee, and evidence was produced, proving that the same reasons do not apply to the two counties. The gentleman says that the granting of the immunity asked for will be taking away the revenues of the State. This is not the fact. The people of Carroll county have a land communication of only five miles with the river, and they will and do avail themselves of it. But one flat boat has passed over the dam during the past year with the produce of this county. If the House think the exemption should not be given, let us kill it at once. There are several propositions of a similar nature before the committee. The reason why the committee presented this bill first, was, because the citizens of Carroll county have been less benefited by the improvement of the navigation of the river.

Mr. GRAVES thought it was time this special legislation was put down. It was imposing an undue burden to exact the tolls from flat boats in time of high water when the State sustained no injury from the passage. The people whom he represented did not feel any interest in the measure, but he knew that the people living above the slack water did. He hoped that all the members of the House who wished to avoid so much special legislation, would sustain the resolution.

The debate upon the resolution of Mr. Graves was further continued by Messrs. Marshall and Haggard, when,

Mr. HAGGARD moved to lay the bill and resolution of the gentleman from Marion upon the table; and he called the yeas and nays upon it. The vote stood—Yeas 60—Nays 33. So the bill and resolution were laid upon the table.

Also—against the petition of Samuel S. T. Vauht; concurred in.

Also—against the petition of J. and E. Hunt; concurred in.

Also—against the petition of James Jenkins; concurred in.

Also—a resolution instructing the committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of vesting the courts with the power of changing the State roads; adopted.

On motion of Mr. HANSON the rules were suspended to consider the bill just reported from the Senate amending the charter of the Lexington and Winchester turnpike company; the bill was passed.

Of Education; a resolution referring so much of the Governor's message as relates to the Committee on Education; adopted.

Of Military Affairs; on the petition of Samuel C. Trotter and others a bill for his benefit; passed.

Of Agriculture and Manufacturers; against a bill to amend an act entitled an act to regulate the weight of grain; the bill was rejected.

Also; against a bill to regulate the weighing of salt at the Goose Creek Salt Works; the bill was rejected.

Of Propositions and Grievances; a bill authorizing the removal of the county Seat of Mason county from Washington to Maysville; with amendments. The amendments were adopted.

Mr. MERIWETHER from the committee remarked that the question was an important one. He did not feel able to enter upon a full discussion of the subject. He moved that the House now resolve itself into committee of the whole on the bill just reported.

The motion prevailed and the House resolved itself into committee of the whole, Mr. McHenry in the chair.

On motion of Mr. MERIWETHER, Messrs. HARRISON TAYLOR, WM. R. BEATTY and THOS. Y. PAYNE, were admitted within the bar of the House, to discuss the question before the committee of the whole House. The order of speaking is, one gentleman upon the affirmative opens; the two upon the negative follow, and the remaining gentleman upon the affirmative closes.

The briefs of the committees in favor of Washington and Maysville were then read, containing statements of the various acts of the Legislature which have been passed upon this subject, and the several votes which have been taken in the county of Mason upon the change.

Mr. PAYNE then addressed the committee at length, in favor of the change to Maysville. After thanking the House for the courtesy which they had so kindly extended to him, he adverted to the first movements which had been made in Mason county respecting a change in the location of the county seat. It was at a public meeting in Washington more than twelve years since—that, anticipating the wishes of Maysville, and aware that the citizens of the latter place would tender to the county a new and commodious edifice for the county purposes, if it could be located at Maysville—that resolutions were passed requesting the Legislature to authorize a vote on the subject in the county. An act was passed, and in accordance with it the votes were taken. Three polls were opened, 1300 votes were cast for a removal, 1000 against it, and 90 neutral. Of those who did not vote at all, 200 petitioned in favor of Maysville. In order to take the second sober thought of the people, an act was passed last winter authorizing another vote to be taken. It has been taken, and 1426 votes have been cast in favor of a removal, and added to this number the petition of 97 who did not vote at all. The question now is, is this a majority of the votes in Mason county? It appears that the whole number of votes in the county is 2,811, leaving a majority for Maysville.

Mr. P. further remarked upon the charges of the opposite party of illegal voting, &c., and after an argument of an hour, concluded.

The committee having obtained leave to sit again, the House took a recess 'till half-past two, P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The committee having convened Mr. TAYLOR arose, and replied to the gentleman who addressed the committee in the morning. He reviewed the history of the movements which had been made in past years for the removal of the county seat. 'T had been agitated thirty years ago. He next noticed the votes which had been taken during the past two years. The majority for the removal was greater when the vote was first taken, than it is now. There was but a bare majority in favor of the removal. It was not just that a bare majority in a county should be permitted to remove the county seat. There would be a constant fluctuation if this was permitted. The situation of other counties was referred to, to establish this position. He considered that this matter was pressed forward with too much haste; they had been compelled to enter upon the investigation before they were prepared for it. They wished to produce testimony to prove illegality in voting upon the question. A great part of the population of Maysville was a transient population; the number of votes in Maysville had increased so rapidly since this question had been agitated that there was reason to believe that had been much illegal voting. He denied that the population of the country surrounding Washington was decreasing.

Facts were related showing illegality in voting, and it was denied that a majority of the legal voters had cast their votes in favor of Maysville.

It was not just that the court house should be removed from the substantial, tax-paying population of the county, to accommodate the transient population of the city. Casting out the votes of the city, Maysville had not one third of the votes of the county. The city had separate interests from the balance of the county. In proportion as she would be benefited by a removal, Washington would be injured. In conclusion, he urged that the committee to whom the matter was referred, should have heard testimony upon the legality of votes and ascertained whether there was a real majority in favor of Maysville.

Mr. BEATTY continued in favor of Washington. He alluded to the claim of the other side, of an agreement before the committee of this House last winter to submit to the decision of the majority of the votes in Mason county. But they did not agree to allow all they could obtain by petition, in addition to the number of votes. They did not agree to submit to a vote so illegal as that recently taken. The Sheriff had no authority to try the legality of the votes. Here Mr. B. gave way, and the committee rose and obtained leave to sit again. The House then adjourned.

THE AYES AND NOES.—The ayes and noes in the House of Representatives upon Mr. Wentworth's resolution declaring it inexpedient to levy duties on tea and coffee have been looked for with a good deal of interest. We find them in the National Intelligencer of the 4th inst. We give them below. It will be seen, that of the three Locooco members from this State, one voted for the tax, one against it, and the third didn't vote at all—very nice balancing indeed!—Low Journal.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS IN THE ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.—The following resolutions, introduced into the Illinois House of Representatives by Mr. Linder, on the 21st ult., excited a loud and general laugh. We are afraid they will hardly pass that Locooco body:

Whereas, as appears from the message of President Polk to the Congress of the United States, Santa Anna has been guilty of the most black-hearted treachery, in failing to perform and make good certain promises made to President Polk, (the consideration of said promise being a passport to Mexico,) one of which was, that, on his arrival at Mexico, he would get up a fight with Parades, and thereby bring the war between the United States and Mexico to a close; therefore—

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring hereto, That we deeply sympathize with President Polk, inasmuch as his reasonable expectations have not been realized, in consequence of the treachery of the aforesaid Santa Anna.

And be it further resolved, That Santa Anna is unworthy the further confidence of President Polk, and that we most respectfully recommend to the President, to place no further reliance upon the promises of Santa Anna to bring the war to a close.

And be it further resolved, That inasmuch as Santa Anna has heretofore, on all occasions, been governed by a strict regard to truth, fidelity and honor, in his conduct, that President Polk had good reason to believe that he would hold sacred his word, thus solemnly pledged, and which we still believe he would have done, had he received the two millions of dollars as per contract with the President.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—The St. Louis Reville has several remonstrances against the award of the Silver Cup by the SABLE HARMONYISTS in that city. Among them are the following:

Gentlemen of the Reville:—I don't know what you think, but I know what I think, sirs. I think that the ladies of this country had better usurp the whole field of literature, and leave nothing for the men. I sent a conundrum to compete for this prize, and, although I say it myself, it was a good one, sirs—yes, I say good. Hear it yourself:

"Why is signing a promissory note like taking a wife?" I know you can't guess it. "Because it is incurring a little responsibility!"

A LITERARY BACHELOR.

P. S.—I am credibly informed that the cup was a tin one.

FRANKFORT.

TUESDAY.....JANUARY 12, 1847.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Democrat, who signs himself Kentucky, says in his letter of the 2d of January, "I cannot believe any man politically honest, who, having any pretensions to common sense, will oppose the tax on tea and coffee."

On the very day this letter was written, Mr. Wentworth, a Locofoco leader, rose in his place in the House of Representatives and offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is inexpedient to levy any tax on Tea and Coffee."

Only forty-eight members of the House voted against the resolution.

President Polk avows his inability to prosecute the war without more money; the Secretary of the Treasury says he has no money, and declares most emphatically, that it is wholly impossible to borrow money without the aid of the tax on Tea and Coffee; yet a Locofoco House of Representatives refuse the tax!

The correspondent of the Democrat, in the same letter, says: "If the tax on tea and coffee is not imposed, the burden of responsibility rests upon the democratic party." The tax on Tea and Coffee is not imposed, and we trust that we shall hear no more complaints from the Democrat, of the unwillingness of the Whigs to aid the President in the prosecution of the war.

We will not quarrel with the correspondent of the Democrat, about the "political honesty" of his friends in Congress. We take it for granted that he knows them better than we do. So far however, as we are acquainted with them, we are inclined to think their "pretensions" to common sense, and "political honesty," are quite as great, as their capital stock, will very well justify.

BLASPHEMY.—Can subversive to power,—can blind, slavish partisanship, be carried beyond the following paragraph from the speech of Seaborn Jones, a member of Congress, from Tennessee? What wicked and unheard of profanity—what a shameless disregard of the decencies of life—what a contempt for the feelings of a Christian people, to compare JAMES K. POLK—even though it is made with a disclaimer of irreverence—with the SAVIOUR of the world! We quote from the Washington Union,—placing a portion in italics.

"At all events, I do not understand that system of ethics which draws a distinction between a straight-forward, honorable, veracious, and pure-minded man in private life, and a deceitful, scoundrel as a public officer. Could any man believe, (Mr. J.) asked, that James K. Polk, who had maintained a pure character in a political life of more than thirty years, could now deliberately, in the character of President of the United States, labor to make the people believe a lie? Why the imputation—if it was not irrelevant to make the comparison—was somewhat akin to that which the infidel cast upon the Saviour of the world, when he represented him as presenting in his life and conversation a spotless exemplar of purity and holiness, and yet as being guilty from his cradle to his grave of the greatest imposture ever attempted! Mr. Polk stood sans peur and sans reproche."

Governor Owsley, and the Common School System.

Our good old Governor has acquitted himself most nobly on this subject. Just when most of the friends of the system had almost despaired; and when the cause was in its darkest hours, then has he come boldly forth, and has spoken most truthfully, eloquently and efficiently. His soul is in the matter; and if something useful is not done, it will not be the fault of his Excellency, nor of the mass of the people.

Now is the time for the friends of the cause to take courage, speak out, and press their sentiments and feelings on the attention of the Legislature.

The following outline of a common School Law is presented, as the result of several years close attention to the subject, and long experience, as patron, trustee and commissioner, under the present law, almost ever since its adoption.

1st. A tax of about two cents on the $100 00, should be levied by the Legislature, and collected exactly as other taxes are; and the proceeds of this tax should be held by the Sheriff, subject to the orders of the School Commissioners of each county. This is the "sine qua non" and is the only thing which is indispensable to put the system into action. It is hoped that this community will never again be excited into ten thousand petty neighborhood quarrels, about levying a tax on themselves, for support of Common Schools; for such a mode of raising revenue for this purpose is just as impolitic and as improper as it would be for purposes of Internal Improvement, or even for the current expenses of the State. Let the tax for these purposes be levied and collected in the same mode, and all will be paid by the people with cheerful approbation.

2nd. Let the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the Board of Education be composed of those persons only, who take a cordial interest in the matter; and let them derive their political existence from those persons also, whose feelings and interests are directly involved. Then we may rely that these officers will take sacred care of any Education Fund which may come into their hands; and they will be independent enough to stand up boldly, and resist any improper appropriation of, or encroachment upon it. For the purpose of nominating them, and for the general advancement of the cause, let a convention annually assemble in Frankfort, consisting of one or more "qualified" teachers from each county, and as many commissioners and trustees as may find it agreeable to come; and let the persons nominated by them be commissioned by the Governor; and let them be held responsible by impeachment before the Legislature. Here lies the reason why the late School fund has been lost, and why no public officer has felt it his duty, or has had the independence or boldness, to raise his voice, and demand its restoration. These officers will have high and responsible trusts, and should have salaries in proportion to the labour required of them.

3rd. The duties of the Commissioners, Trustees,

&c., may be much the same as at present; and to encourage them to fulfil the duties of their offices let them be exempt from road and jury service, or even allow them some discount on the School tax which they may have to pay—and to encourage them to go to the Annual Convention, let them pass free of toll on the roads of the Commonwealth, and let the teachers draw their usual pay for one week during their attendance on the Convention. This Convention would infuse a spirit and interest, which would be felt in all the details of the system, and would greatly tend to produce uniformity of text books, and mode of instruction, and discipline in all the schools.

Other suggestions might be given, but enough for the present. With the above features in it, any School law can be worked, and the old one would have succeeded, but for the want of them; and certainly no Law can prosper without them.

But we are not disposed to censure any one for the past, as no wrong has been intentionally committed. For the future, let us all unite in vigorous and harmonious efforts, to wipe the deep disgrace of wide pervading ignorance from our State; and never rest until she shall hold the same high character for general intelligence, which her sons now have for patriotism and bravery.

The Rural Register and Almanac for 1847.

This is the title of a neat paper covered pamphlet of 143 pages, published by those enterprising and well known publishers, Messrs. Grigg & Elliott, of Philadelphia. We have rarely ever seen so great an amount of useful information presented to the public, in so cheap and convenient a form.

As an almanac, it presents all the usual astronomical information; and is made applicable to all latitudes, from Maine to Texas. To farmers and to gardeners it is most valuable; giving full directions for all their work for every month in the year; and for all the States in the Union. Then follows an excellent catalogue of fruit trees; embracing apples, peaches, pears, cherries, apricots, nectarines; as well as strawberries, raspberries, nuts, &c., &c., with descriptions of the fruit, time of ripening, &c. Next follows a concise but complete treatise on the cultivation of all the principal vegetables of the U. S. States, from a pumpkin to an onion. Then numerous plates, with accurate descriptions of all sorts of farming and gardening implements, from a cotton-gin to a pitch-fork. A treatise on transplanting, grafting and budding, laying out grounds, construction of farm buildings, fences, hedges, &c., all illustrated by numerous correct drawings, &c., &c.

The present edition being most probably exhausted, the object of the present notice is to call the attention of the agricultural public to so valuable a work, in order that timely application may be made for the succeeding annual numbers. No farmer or gardener who is worth a "bit" should be without one.

R. W. S.

On the failure of the effort to impose a tax on tea and coffee, Mr. Tibbatts offered a resolution to increase the duties on all articles to a point as high as the revenue standard will permit. The Locos are very much perplexed as to how they shall raise money for the support of the Government. The most sensible plan they can adopt is to restore the Whig tariff of 1842, and to repeal their miserable Sub-Treasury law. Let them do this, and Mr. Walker can effect the loan necessary to a prosecution of the Mexican war.—Low Jour.

At a meeting of the Board of the Trustees of the Frankfort Cemetery Company, it is ordered, that the Ordinance which requires the gates to be closed on Sunday, be suspended during the session of the Legislature; and that Members of the Legislature and all strangers, be respectfully invited to visit the Grounds at any time they may desire. MARION BROWN, Ch. F. C. C. Attest—J. C. HARRISON, Secretary.

In consequence of the indisposition of a little daughter, I am compelled to return home, without finishing my report. I will thank all persons holding reports of Common Schools, to leave them at the 2d Auditor's Office. R. T. DILLARD, Jan. 6, 1847. Sup. Pub. Instruction.

Single copies of both the DAILY and WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, neatly enveloped in strong wrappers, can be had at this office, the former at 3 cents, and the latter at 5 cents per copy.

MARRIED.

On the 10th inst., by Rev. John Tevis, Mr. PASHALL H. MAYALL, of this county, to Miss Mary Ann HERRINGTON, of Shelby county, Ky.

DIED.

In this city, on the morning of the 6th inst., after a painful illness, Mrs. MARY THEOBALD, wife of G. P. Theobald, Esq., in the 54 year of her age.

We announce the death of this most excellent and pious lady, with no ordinary feeling of sorrow. Oppressed by the event, we feel incompetent to sketch her character, or portray the many eccencies that adorned her life, and made her one of the most useful and admired members of the circle in which she moved. The Christian virtues clustered around her, and made her, by the unostentatious practice of them, an ornament of the church of which she had been for years an active member. Her abiding faith in Christ, which was never shaken, and the hope of a blessed immortality, which had cheered her through life, combined, in her last struggle, to blunt the sting of death, and dispel the terrors of the tomb. And she is now, as we believe and trust, in the full enjoyment of those glorious triumphs which the Saviour promised to His followers.

Her memory will be long cherished by her many friends. Her guileless heart—her purity of life—her active benevolence, and her Christian simplicity of manner, will never be forgotten by them. They will derive comfort from the recollection of them, and from the assurance that she is now, and will be forever, beyond the reach of sin and sorrow—where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.

But who can fully appreciate the affliction of her bereaved husband? He has lost the most affectionate of wives—the partner, through a long life of his toils and cares. His loss is beyond the reach of earthly consolation. His friends extend to him their sympathy—it is all the comfort they can give. They mourn with him—their tears mingle with his over her grave.—Lee Obs.
